5411 MIDDLE SCHOOL ADVANCEMENT CEREMONY

It is the policy of the Board of Education that each year a separate eighth grade advancement ceremony for Glen Meadow Middle School will be held at the direction of the building principal prior to the end of the school year at approximately 3:00 p.m. This will be a dignified program; however, modified in scope, to reflect completion of the middle school program.

The program shall include the presentation of advancement certificates, academic awards and other awards germane to the overall middle school program.

As with all school activities, the building administration is authorized to deny participation in the ceremony to any pupil whose past conduct would lead to the belief that he or she could disrupt the advancement ceremony.
