

Dear Walnut Ridge Family,

February 27th- March 3rd is the Love of Reading Week!!

"Love of Reading Week," celebrates the love of reading and affords us the opportunity to embrace all of the different works of literature. Additionally, the "Love of Reading Week" promotes a lifelong love of reading through literacy celebrations. The Walnut Ridge School is promoting a love of reading with numerous opportunities to help our youngest students love reading, be immersed in the world of literature, and promote lifelong readers. We are looking forward to a fantastic week!

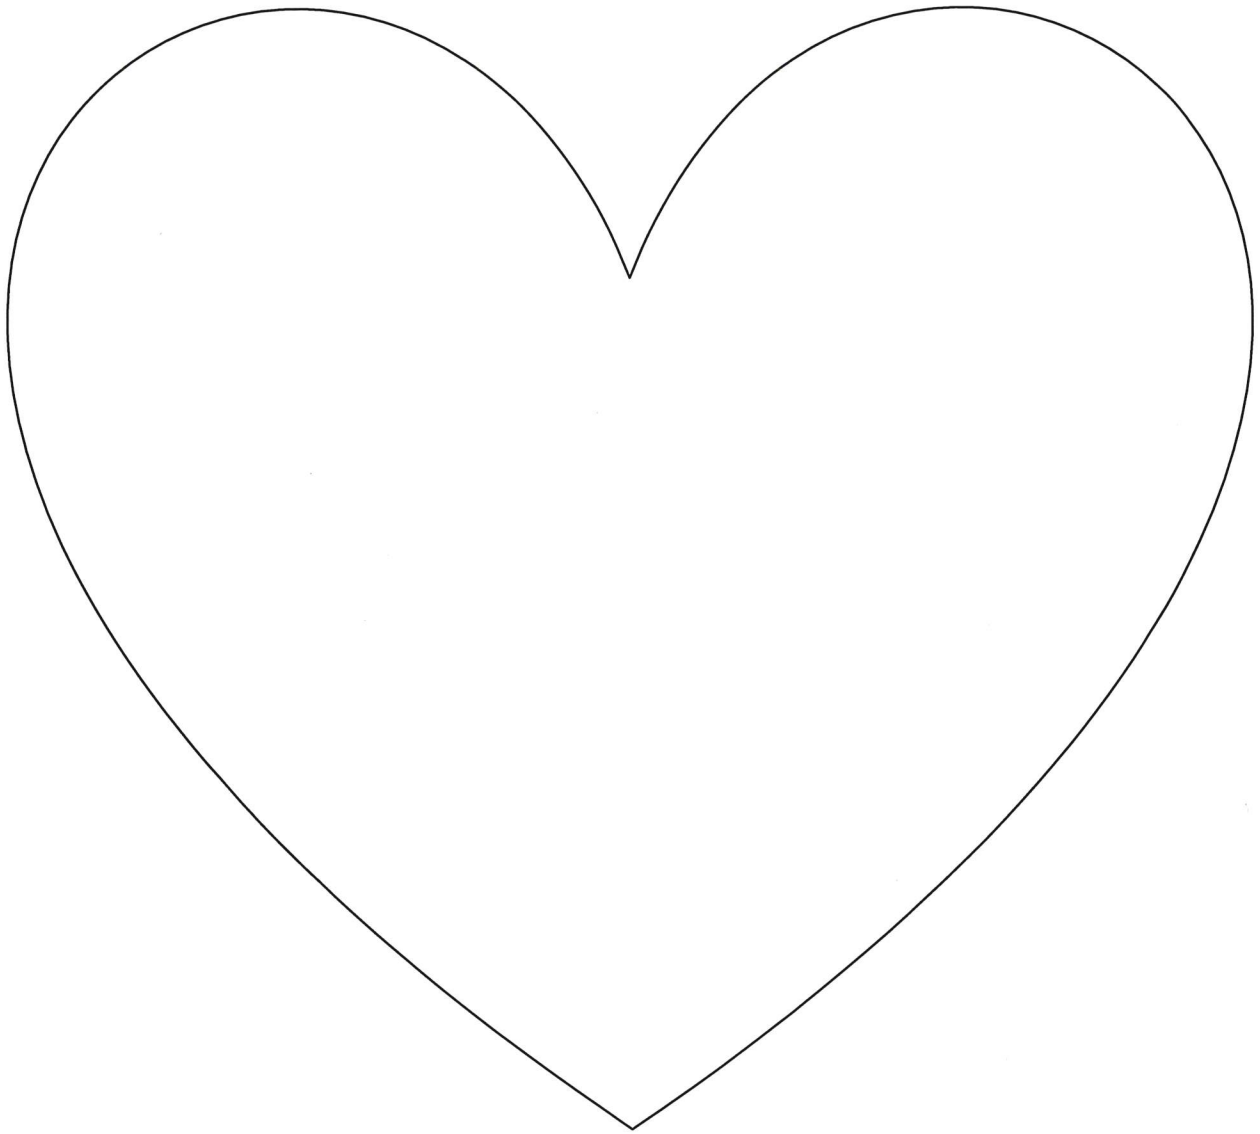

Below are our week's activities if you choose to participate.
